

CV Ms. Elisabeth Munck af Rosenschöld,
Global Sustainability Manager, IKEA Transport & Logistics Services, Inter IKEA Group

Elisabeth has a strong background in sustainability, extensive business sector background and is highly experienced in leading cross-cultural teams from years of working in an international environment. She is currently the Global Sustainability Manager at Transport & Logistics Services in Inter IKEA Group and has previously held sustainability related functions in other multinational companies. She has also worked as a sustainability management consultant at leading international management, financial audit and technical consultancy firms.

She holds a Master of Law from Lund University and a MSc in Environmental Management and Policy from the international Institute of Industrial Environmental Economics, Lund University.